Pakistan Learning Festival
Celebrating & Preserving the Multicultural Heritage & Eco Diversity of Gilgit Baltistan 2021
Children Literature Festival in Gilgit is gifting unique educational and learning program for families, students and teacher.

The Children’s Literature Festival (CLF) will host the first ever Pakistan Learning Festival (PLF) at Fatima Jinnah Govt. Degree College for Women, Gilgit from June 1st to 3rd. The event is being organized by the Education Department Gilgit Baltistan to celebrate and preserve the rich cultural heritage and eco-diversity of the region.

The inclusive, multilingual and multi-cultural learning festival, to be anchored by Gilgit Education Department with the collaboration of the National Board for Education in the Arts, Gilgit and the Citizenship, Culture, Tribal Affairs, Gilgit-Baltistan, will also feature a wide variety of activities to engage parents, students, teachers, and educators.

The festival will feature a series of workshops, seminars, and panel discussions on various topics including literacy, education, and the role of literature in society. The event will also feature readings, discussions, and performances by local and international authors, poets, and musicians.

CLF has been described as a world-class festival for children and is praised for its high-quality participation and unique opportunities for children to interact with authors and other cultural figures.

The festival is being held in partnership with the Pakistan Children’s Literature Foundation (PCLF) and is supported by the Pakistan Children’s Literacy Trust (PCLT). The festival is a great opportunity for children to explore their love for literature and to develop a passion for learning.

Upcoming Pakistan Learning Festival to celebrate Gilgit Baltistan’s Heritage and Eco-diversity from June 1-3, 2021
Welcome Back to Safe Schools

The festival will welcome children back to school in the country on three from the third wave of Covid-19 while schools may be re-opened to teachers and staff as per the government’s guidelines to ensure everyone can resume at the face of the pandemic. As the resumption of education is being revamped in the COVID-affected world, the PLF seeks to re-engage communities and secure a brighter future.

The festival will feature a range of activities including storytelling, discussions, workshops, and performances to engage children aged 4-13 years and their families. The event will be open to everyone to enjoy and participate with over 60 sessions and more than 100 resource persons. The festival will be held at the Pakistani National Park in Gilgit Baltistan.

The festival is organized by the Pakistan Learning Festival and the Children’s Literature Festival, in collaboration with the Gilgit Baltistan Tourism and Wildlife Department and the Pakistan National Park. The festival will feature Arduino, a children’s educational program, and will be supported by the Ministry of National Park and Wildlife.

The festival will focus on 10 major learning streams which include: Storytelling, discussion, and the setting of children’s literature. The festival will also feature workshops on digital learning, panel discussions, children’s films, and more. The festival will be held on June 1-3, 2021.

The festival aims to celebrate and preserve the multicultural heritage and eco-diversity of Gilgit Baltistan, while also promoting education and learning. The festival is open to everyone and will be held in accordance with all safety protocols and guidelines.
